Empowering the Degenerative Cervical Myelopathy community through:

Awareness

Research

Support

Myelopathy.org is the first global scientific and clinical charity dedicated to positively transforming patient outcomes in Degenerative Cervical Myelopathy (DCM).

Our community includes people with lived experience of the disease, the people who care for them, and the health professionals who treat them.

Please visit our Support Groups on Facebook to get connected:

1. Myelopathy.org Support Group = For people with DCM
2. Myelopathy.org Caregivers Support Group = For carers/family members
